

English III

Week of October 8 – Homecoming week

Welcome back!

- As you enter, pick up the ACT Reading Passage. You have ten minutes to complete the reading and answering the questions.

For the first twenty minutes (Tuesday)

- Turn to page 318.
- Using Cornell Notes, write down the five most important facts to know about Washington Irving.
- When you are done, begin to read "The Devil and Tom Walker."

This week...

Objectives

- Students will learn the basics needed to begin preparing for ACT Reading and English through "Know the ACT" notes
- Students will read, SOAPSTONE, and answer critical thinking questions over "The Devil and Tom Walker" from Washington Irving in order to prepare for our Halloween narratives.

Standards

Students will be aware of Reading and English standards for ACT.

Students will cite textual evidence to support analysis of inference drawn from the text.

Students will determine two themes of a text and analyze their development.

"In the Know"

- We will go through the "Know the ACT" Notes.
